

Square (1.4, -0.05), pairing seed: an edge-weighted spin remainder

Usual RMS rises late; central RMS still falls

96.7% of final  $\text{spin}^2$  lies in the outer 14 rungs at each end. This is not established bulk coexistence.
All profiles are physical correlations; endpoint remains unaccepted.

Weak spin is concentrated near the open ends

